- Lyon and Gloucester will face each other for the first time in European competition; Lyon have only won one of their 12 games in the Heineken Champions Cup (L11), at home against Benetton Rugby last season (28-0).
- Gloucester have lost their last four away games in the Heineken Champions Cup, their longest losing run away from home; however, three of those four defeats have come by a margin of three points or fewer.
- Gloucester averaged the most clean breaks (12.7) in the Heineken Champions Cup last season, while they also made the most passes per game (181).
- Gloucester conceded 12.3 penalties per game in the Heineken Champions Cup last season, more than any other club, however Lyon conceded the second most in 2019/20 (12).
- Gloucester's Ollie Thorley (113) was the only player to gain 100+ metres per game in the Heineken Champions Cup last season, with only Thomas Ramos (651) and Virimi Vakatawa (597) gaining more metres overall than the Gloucester wing (564).
